

IEEE Italy Section 2018 PhD Thesis Award on New Challenges for Energy and Industry

Rules for Participants

The IEEE Italy Section together with its Chapters and WIE Affinity Group, is pleased to announce the first call of the PhD Thesis Award on New Challenges for Energy and Industry thanks to the financial sponsor of one of the major players of the electric power industry, such as ABB.

The Award consists in an honorarium of 2000 Euro and a Certificate.

For the year 2018 three awards will be presented. At least one of the awardees shall be a woman. If no woman is selected, two awards will be presented.

Only candidates with the following requisites are eligible for the award:

- be a Member or Student Member of IEEE
- have completed the PhD Course in an Italian University, and defended the Thesis in 2017 or 2018 (XXIX or XXX cycle)
- the thesis shall be on the following main field of interest: Smart Energy Systems, Smart Grids, Smart Industrial Systems. Focus of this Award are innovative applications which use data obtained from electrical, environmental, and/or process measurements with the purpose of improving efficiency, reliability, safety, security, fault tolerance, or other performance indexes
- thesis will be evaluated according to the following criteria: degree of innovation in the proposed methodology or technology, potential for application in real-world situations, potential effectiveness.

Candidates must send their application by May 15, 2018 (23.59 GMT) together with:

- Name and email address of the candidate
- Self-certification of IEEE membership with member number
- Title of the PhD Thesis
- Name of the PhD Thesis Advisor and his/her contact email address
